70%

of online shoppers worldwide choose to prepay local duties and customs at checkout.

In the fast-paced world of online retail, customer trust is paramount. Hidden costs can disrupt this trust, affecting your relationship with customers. Our Duties & Taxes Paid (DDP) service is the solution, providing a seamless experience for both you and your customers.

Eliminate Surprises, Foster Trust

Shoppers fear unexpected charges. DDP ensures a transparent pricing structure, eliminating surprises and fostering trust. A straightforward shopping experience is key to customer satisfaction.

Strategic Cost Integration

With DDP, duties and taxes are strategically integrated into product pricing. You absorb these costs, enhancing competitiveness without sacrificing profit margins. It's a win-win for both you and your customers.

Reduce Cart Abandonment

Hidden fees, especially for duties and taxes, lead to abandoned carts. DDP directly addresses this pain point, reducing abandonment rates and increasing the likelihood of completing international sales.

Align with Global Shopper Preferences

70% of online shoppers globally prefer prepaying duties and customs at checkout. By offering DDP, you align with the majority, making your brand more appealing globally and expanding your market reach.

Hassle-Free Returns, Enhanced Loyalty

Our commitment extends beyond upfront transparency. We support you with a hassle-free returns policy to ensure you avoid unnecessary taxes on returned items. Strengthen customer loyalty with this added convenience.
